

SOCIETY IN PETERSBURG

The Wednesday Music and the Country Club.

EVENINGS AT THEATRE

Members of the Literary Club Taking a Deep Interest in Professor Mitchell's Lectures—Sponsors Appointed for Sons of Veterans.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., Oct. 10.—The meeting of the Wednesday Music Club this week at the home of Miss Laura V. Jones, its president, the tea at the Country Club, and two evenings at the theatre, have mainly interested society in Petersburg.

The Country Club evenings are becoming very popular, and there is an increase in attendance each Saturday evening.

Harry Beresford, in the "Professor's Love Story," and Miss Elizabeth Kennedy, in "As You Like It," were the attractions at the theatre. While the attendance at these two delightful plays was not large, the audiences were select and cultured ones.

LITERARY CLUB.
The members of the Literary Club are working very eagerly to assure a good attendance at the lectures to be delivered in this city by Professor S. C. Mitchell, of Richmond College, under the auspices of the club. They will be delivered at A. P. Hill Camp Hall. The general subject of the speaker will be "The French Revolution." The first lecture will be delivered next Friday evening, the subject on that occasion being "Machiavelli."

Miss Rosa R. Stephenson, of Petersburg, has been appointed by Mr. E. Leslie Spence, of Richmond, as sponsor for the Sons of Veterans, from the Fourth Congressional District to the reunion of Confederate Veterans, which will be held in Newport News beginning October 28th. Miss Stephenson's maid of honor will be her friend, Miss Mary Gee, of this city. Mr. Spence could hardly have made a better selection. Misses Stephenson and Gee are two of the most popular young ladies in the younger society set in the Cockade City.

PERSONAL.
Mr. Knox, of Richmond, and his daughter, are now making their home in Petersburg. Mr. Knox is connected with the David Dunlop school in this city.

Miss Jane Lovett, who has been staying at the home of her cousins, the Misses Collier, in this city, has returned to her home in Norfolk.

Miss Lillian Binford, of Richmond, is the guest of Miss Josephine Budd, in this city.

CONFEDERATE DAUGHTERS.
At the meeting of the Petersburg Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, held last evening, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. William R. McKenney; vice-president, Mrs. Bartlett Roper; treasurer, Mrs. E. J. Nixon; recording secretary, Mrs. R. H. Hill; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. Pryor Jones; registrar, Miss Cassie Starke; historian, Mrs. Mary E. Morrison. Delegates were appointed to the State convention, which meets in Norfolk, October 22-25th, as follows: Mrs. W. R. McKenney, Mrs. James W. Claborn and Mrs. E. J. Nixon; alternates—Mrs. Bartlett Roper, Mrs. W. E. Badger, Miss Sue Devereux and Miss Cassie Starke. Delegates were also appointed to the convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, which meets in Charleston, S. C., November 11th, as follows: Mrs. R. T. Meade, Mrs. W. R. McKenney, Mrs. W. Pryor Jones, Miss Kate Hall; alternates—Mrs. William Beasley, Mrs. James McKenney, Mrs. Sarah Wilson and Miss Annie Mann.

The Daughters are arranging to confer crosses of honor on the veterans of A. P. Hill Camp.

Freak in Highland.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

MONTEREY, VA., Oct. 10.—If Highland can lay claim to a "freak," it is in the person of Dan Carver, the mathematician and linguist, who, last spring, was taken from Monterey to the county parish farm in Crabbottom.

For many years prior to his removal to the poor-farm, Dan showed a marked aversion to work and water. The reformer along these lines, attended by the keeper of the "farm," were too much for Dan, so he recently decamped, without leave or license. He is now visiting sections of the country, where, years ago, he "taught the young idea how to shoot," and he will be allowed his freedom until complaint is made to Superintendent Bland.

GAY WEEK IN DANVILLE

Charity Ball on Tuesday Night a Brilliant Affair.

COTILLON CLUB'S HOP

Second of Season Given on Friday Night—Mrs. Williamson Entertains at Euchre in Honor of Her Guest, Miss Dimmick.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., Oct. 10.—The past week has been the gayest in Danville society for a long time, and one or two of the most brilliant society events that have taken place in years have been enjoyed. The festivities opened with the grand charity ball and band concert on Tuesday night, which was one of the most brilliant events that has ever been enjoyed in this city. The Washington Marine Band, under the direction of Professor Smith, furnished the music, and it would be hard to conceive of any more delightful. The concert was given in the Academy of Music, and was heard by a crowd which taxed the capacity of the house. The German at Municipal Hall did not commence until 10:30, but continued until almost 2 A. M.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. W. W. Williamson entertained at her delightful home on Main Street in honor of her guest, Miss Dimmick, of Germantown, Pa. Euchre was the game, and there were about thirty-five ladies present. The first prize was won by Miss Lizzie Conrad and the consolation prize by Miss Kate Patton.

Miss Anne Wither, daughter of the late Colonel J. G. Wither, was quietly married Wednesday night at her home on Patton Street to Mr. Thomas J. Robertson, of Pleasant Gap, Va. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. McEn. Simpson in the presence of only a few intimate friends of the contracting parties.

COTILLON CLUB.
The Cotillon Club, which was recently organized in the city, gave the second of their hops Friday night. There are about thirty members of the club, and it is the intention of the promoters to hold a hop each week. The club utilizes the old armory and has a colored orchestra of good musicians.

The first hop of the season was given at the Danville Military Institute last night. This was given by the officers and students of the Institute complimentary to the young ladies of the city. The hop was liberally attended and scored another distinct success for the Institute.

Miss Mamie Easley, one of South Boston's most attractive young ladies, and who is a great favorite in Danville society, has returned to her home after a month's visit to her sister, Mrs. Howard Edmonds.

Miss Elizabeth George, a former well known society leader of this city, but now a resident of Greensboro, N. C., is visiting in the city this week.

Among the Danville people who are attending the Lynchburg Horse Show this week are Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Rickett, Mrs. W. O. Strange and Mrs. Pickett Thompson.

Mrs. J. T. Parkinson, of Richmond, is in the city the guest of Mrs. Dorsey Jones, on Main Street.

AT THE HOT
Bridge Whist in Great Favor—Richmond Contingent at the Spa.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HOT SPRINGS, VA., Oct. 10.—If a good bridge whist player, one is in constant demand here, for the really expert players are comparatively scarce. The games are usually made up in the morning to be played in the evening after dinner, but sometimes it happens that the fourth hand will drop out at the last moment, and then a search is instituted for some one to make up the number.

Miss Marian Harris has joined her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Harris, and sister, Miss Kate Harris, here. With Miss Boshier and Mrs. Robert Newell Gruber, these young women have formed a little quartette of their own.

Dr. Stuart McGuire arrived here Sunday morning, accompanied by his sister, Miss Frances McGuire, who returned home after a short stay with Mr. and Mrs. DeCarat Axtell at the Homestead.

Frank A. Davenport is a conspicuous figure at the hotel, and Mr. Preston Witherspoon has lately arrived to join friends here.

A few evenings ago Mr. Lewis Ginter Young, of Richmond, gave a handsome dinner in the private dining-room of the hotel to Mr. and Mrs. J. Bradley Cummings, of New York, who were leaving.

The decorations were American beauty roses in profusion.

Mr. Paul Rainey, a young millionaire from New Orleans, has sent for his famous pack of fox hounds, and will take them to the hunting grounds where it is expected there will be some hunting and cross-country riding. Mr. Rainey has fifteen thousand acres of hunting land in Mississippi.

The Seth Barton Frenchs are expected every day.

Miss Betty Booker, of Richmond, spent August with them in Switzerland, and September in London.

NEWS OF THE NORMAL

Close of First Week Finds 435 Pupils Enrolled.

MAGAZINE CLUB FORMED

Best Publications of the Day Will Be Reviewed and Current Events Discussed—Pretty Birthday Anniversary Celebration.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, FARMVILLE, VA., Oct. 10.—The close of the first busy month of the Normal School finds four hundred and thirty-five young ladies of the Commonwealth registered and at work. Though so full of duties, the first weeks have also contained many pleasures.

Mr. Richard T. Wyche, the well remembered story-teller, who visited us last year, spent a week at the Normal School recently, giving a lecture every day to the senior classes on the art of story-telling, its value in education and the power of the story in spiritual development.

It was a most profitable week, concluding with an entertainment consisting largely of Uncle Remus tales—in which Mr. Wyche is inimitable—and other selections from southern folks lore. A magazine club has just been organized by the faculty of the school. It will meet every two weeks, reviewing the best publications of the day, both educational and general. It is the purpose of the club to bring its members into an intelligent appreciation of the school problems of the day, thus strengthening the institution along all professional lines, and at the same time to afford opportunity for discussion of pertinent current events and general literature. The organization of the club is extremely simple, the official membership consisting merely of an Executive Committee, Dr. Elmer E. Jones, chairman; Miss Reynolds and Miss Halburton, which has charge of all programmes and matters of business.

The students and teachers who attend the Presbyterian Church were delightfully entertained in the lecture room of the church, Friday evening, October 23. Each guest represented by some ingenious or artistic device a popular book; much cleverness was shown by the originators of these graphic illustrations.

Little Mary Woodson celebrated her sixth birthday most happily on Saturday, October 24, by entertaining her little friends of the kindergarten, and Miss Freeborn and Miss Woodruff, at the home of her grandfather, Dr. Peter Winston. Little Mary's duties as hostess were shared charmingly by Mrs. Woodson and Mrs. Winston.

The fall meeting of the Virginia Normal League took place Wednesday morning, Miss Reynolds presiding. All reports were encouraging; fifty-four new members were enrolled. Because of its motive, the maintenance of an aid fund for deserving girls—the club connected with the school is so worthy of the support of all those interested in the mission of the Normal School. Since its organization only a few years ago, five young ladies have been the worthy beneficiaries of the aid fund, which is growing rapidly from dues and gifts of friends of education in the State.

Y. M. C. A. Star Course, at the opera house Thursday evening, the eighth, was attended by a crowd of students, who found the excellent programme of selections by that irresistible humorist, Mr. Frank Reynolds, and his accomplished company of musicians, composing Love's Boston Stars, a means of one kind of education not to be despised—the cheerful art of looking on the funny side of things.

People in York.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

TRIALS of MOTHERHOOD

895 Broad Street, PHILADELPHIA, PA., June 12, 1908.

I suffered for nine years with ovarian troubles making life a burden to myself as well as to my family. During that time I had two miscarriages and although we longed for a child to bless our home this seemed impossible. I had constant aching bearing down pains in the pelvic organs and a pulling through my limbs with frequent headaches. I felt sick at my stomach and vomited frequently and no medicine helped me until I tried Wine of Cardui.

Then my general health improved, the pains gradually lessened and after 18 weeks I was well. I am now the happy mother of a boy eighteen months old and my husband joins me in sending heartfelt thanks to you for your splendid medicine.

Without it, I would have been a childless, instead of a happy and well mother.

WINE of CARDUI

It was not strange that Mrs. Nirdlinger should have a miscarriage after suffering nine years with ovarian troubles. This weakness made her unequal to the task of bringing a healthy child into the world. Bearing down pains and ovarian diseases result from the inflammation and consequent weakening of the muscles and ligaments which hold the female organs in place.

They either fall of their own weight or some strain which would not be felt in health, causes the trouble.

By regulating menstruation, Wine of Cardui banishes inflammation from the entire female organism and the strengthened ligaments bring the organs back to their proper place. This is what Wine of Cardui did for Mrs. Nirdlinger. She was restored to health and strength and gives Wine of Cardui the credit of making her able to become a happy mother. There are many suffering women who think that health can never be theirs because they cannot secure the services of a great specialist.

But we want to say right here that while Mrs. Nirdlinger lives in Philadelphia, a great medical center, she depended on Wine of Cardui for a cure and she was cured. Will you take it? All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
